“Justice, the most meritorious of all deeds”

The Sunday morning speaker series explores what the Bahá'í Faith has to say about your interests and questions. Our guest speaker for October 26th, Tim Truzy, will talk about how we should emulate 'Abdu'l-Bahá's teachings of “Let deeds, not words, be our adorning!”

Let deeds, not words, testify to thy faith, if thou art a man of true learning. Cease idly repeating the traditions of the past, for the day of service, of steadfast action, is come. Now is the time to show forth the true signs of God, to rend asunder the veils of idle fancy, to promote the Word of God, and to sacrifice ourselves in His path. Let deeds, not words, be our adorning!”

in how we treat each other, people with disabilities, and people of color. After his presentation, the floor will be opened for questions, which will be most warmly welcomed.
